This is a beautiful Chinese statement piece and its form has a most intriguing history. This round back folding chair design is similar to the classic Ming Dynasty design crafted for Emperors and officials. The portable folding armchair design evolved from the folding stool of the Han Dynasty.

The curved backrest has fortuitous carvings of a Chinese unicorn and a dragon enclosed in a ruyi. There is brass hardware on arms and footrest and as round back supports. The chair seat is woven and of great comfort. This armchair is also known as a horseshoe armchair.
